A Convincing Answer.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." sold by St. Johns Drug Co.

The women that went to the reservoir last week found the old saying to be true. "The way to a man's heart is thru his stomach." The feast that these women prepared consisted of beef, chicken, potatoes, pie, pudding, cake and all sorts of good things that would make a man eat when he was not hungry. After the dainty and refreshing repast was partaken of, the men arose feeling as if they had been at home eating instead of on the reservoir and when they came to realize where they were they all joined together and gave three cheers to the generous hearted women of St. Johns.

After viewing the dam and how the work is carried on the ladies bade them good-bye and returned home promising that they would again return. They also felt that they were paid for their trip. When one sees things as appreciated which they do, it gives them encouragement, while on the other hand we feel discouraged.

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlehan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommended it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by the St. John's Drug Co.

over the counter by a full crew of obliging clerks.

Arbor day was the wildest most enthusiastic day ever witnessed in the history of the academy. The students, being so hampered for room, marched out on Main street and fairly aroused the town with their bugle screeches and stirring shouts of—"New Academy! Larger hall, Old Academy, now too small!" Amid this clamor for room the school marched to the grounds selected for the new academy and laid out the ten-acre plot, giving each class its portion of the grounds.

The enthusiastic, patriotic, unequalled and much appreciated "Academy Yell" is occasionally indulged in by the students.
